SUMMARY

I am a frontend developer with a strong focus on detail and a passion for creating user-friendly, high-performance, and accessible websites. My expertise lies in HTML, CSS, Tailwind CSS, and JavaScript, and I excel at using React to build exceptional digital experiences.

I create responsive and friendly applications, integrate APIs, and transform ideas into user-friendly, maintainable interfaces. When I'm not coding, I enjoy watching movies, anime, playing chess, reading manga, and spending time with family and friends.
